1969-70	Victor Bursset-Serbia
1970-73	George W. Murdock
1974	John H. Dingle
1975 →	A. Wade Eaton, Jr.

St. Stephen's congregation is made up of about twenty middle-class families (over)

who want to worship in English (although many are bilingual).

The congregation is evenly divided between men and women, and between adults and children.

Clergy and laity take active parts in the formal services: men and women, boys and girls.

The Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m. Sunday is the principal service, followed by Church School and coffee hour. Midweek services at the church or at homes of the congregation as announced.

We are at present building a new church on property adjacent to the "chapel-in-a-house" where we now worship.
